- I will receive my acknowledged Passport to Education Passport Agreement each semester.
- Passport to Education subscription rates are fixed for up to seven (7) years, as long as you continue to make monthly payments (the “Tuition Lock”). Past due payments not paid in full by completion of semester will prevent you from enrolling in the following semester. Thirty days past due accounts will be dropped from the Passport to Education subscription plan will result in loss of Tuition Lock. Any future acceptance to the P2E subscription plan will enroll in the then current subscription plan payment amount.
- I may opt out of the Passport to Education Program by completing the Opt Out Student Agreement provided by the University. Changing my major does not drop me from the Passport to Education Program.
• Changing my major does not automatically drop me from the Passport to Education Program.
• By opting out of the Passport to Education Program, I may incur additional costs if/when I wish to restart the Passport to Education Program.
• Opting out of the Passport to Education Program does not discontinue me from Boise State University, only the Passport to Education program itself.
• If I fail to make two (2) consecutive monthly subscription payments, I will be dropped from the Passport to Education program and may be placed on administrative hold until all past due payments are paid in full. I will be encouraged to continue the class work and pass any enrolled courses with a passing grade, failure to do so could result in a failed grade.
• If I fail to register, but have continued to make payments for one (1) semester, I will be dropped from the Passport to Education program.
  • If I am administratively dropped from the Passport to Education program due to not enrolling, I am not able to continue in the program until I have met with my Academic Advisor and I acknowledge the Passport to Education agreement.
